

Career Advice That Will Get You To The Top | DailyVee 654

Spent 24 hours in Melbourne It's very clear So many of you are trying to take the next step in your careers but you just don't know how how do you up here's a take on the just landed in Melbourne off to the hotel going to shower run right downstairs Meet a gift goat from vs basically we've got the next 14 hours program straight I made a crucial mistake on the flight It was a 25 hour flight I woke up eight hours ago worked the whole way This is going to be a rough one See how the energy holds up A little groggy right now 25 26 hours of travel It's kind of rough She like I like what how are you this this this one I really want You want to win Yes probably even even though I don't think I can win Oh that's why you asked me Left side Yeah I screened my peck in Chicago and like it's killing me and and le left side It was funny Mike Do you think I can beat you in our wrestling I don't see it Oh it's so big Look At this It's not this is all I film fully documented Are you ready Yep Go There's no chance that is difficult It's coming back You know we're gonna edit it with just the place where I want you to Thanks Gary It's lovely to meet you Enjoy the rest of Australia Such a pleasure Thank you All right Going into a client meeting So you'll be not filming this Tell him don't play this one Trade made you a tape for the second Do the race on stage I got here little a tank in it I've been clearing space for me I've been feeling grace Literally it's one person I'll just go hard Like Rick what's really wild about it is like I generally like of course I'd be like hey what went wrong But I wouldn't be like oh I suck or this sucks I'd be like Rick you gotta fuck it You know like I can get really hyped to frank See that expression on your face Why So how do you prepare in that situation You mean like this piece of cake Just never ever ever talk about something good I'll see you later Take care of yourself Hello Hello Hello Thank you for coming Yeah of course Thank you brother It's good to be back Honestly I'm looking to provide as much value in this setting as possible I'm thrilled to answer any question that anybody might have a I guess chunking up things that I wanna do because like I'll have a product I wanna do I have something I wanna write I'll have this I wanna do platform Focus on like how do you chunk up a couple of things work for me One I'm not scared to lose So I think a lot of times a lot of people don't do a lot of things because they can't take the L when you're doing 31 things like seven are going to fail quickly And I'm just ok with that And I think that's one thing to think about How old are you Yeah I mean there's just there's a level of practice to it because I like juggling 30 balls because I'm ok with seven of them breaking Most people are like petrified for a ball to drop Pleasure I'll see you out there Pleasure That's so you're gonna fireside chat me and then we're gonna do Q and A has money Mind been an issue with oil or does it seem like it by product Money is good and all Like I understand what it is It just the problem is I just know way too many people with money that are miserable and this is where luck comes in for sure I love business We're living in an era where people have put entrepreneurship on a pedestal and a lot of people are forcing themselves to be on when they're not self awareness is what needs to happiness Not everybody should be an entrepreneur It takes a real stomach to be an entrepreneur Everything's on you people Like what's your morning routine I'm like I wake up and look at my phone to make sure the world's not on fire because my Singapore office is open and Australia is like it's constant anxiety You got to like it for it not to be anxiety But if you don't like it and you were not built for it it fucking is the worst And I watch entrepreneurship eat up people every day I think we should go to the audience Now if you have a question for Gary we're gonna ask you to this line up behind one of these microphones I highly recommend you get your ass in line Let's get going Hi Hi Gary My name is Nick Colo I was part of eruption five I was the added two for 26 years and overcame that addiction 2.5 years clean now So I post my journey on social media I I feel I'm making an impact I'm still trying to get a fucking handle on life and it's a journey I'm learning We all are Yeah Yeah Like I'm impacting people I'm starting to be consistent in the gym and I'm getting fucking messages I'm consistent in this This is amazing and and and the thing is I'm unemployed I'm just wondering do you have any advice of how I can monetize what I'm doing or I mean do you want to get a job But this is me I love I love my But I'm asking you a really practical question because I want you to win Monetizing is very challenging Let me explain You've got to either get brand deals you've got to either be a big enough creator where you're getting meaningful money from the revenue share the platforms which you have to be at a very high level for that You have to create a product to sell You could create a course or charge your audience I think that changes the entire dynamic of it Monetizing is challenging The reason I'm asking is I think the same tenacity you're attacking this with applying to 10 or 15 jobs a day with good copy and good videos is something you also have to give a thought to because I think the stability of having the job 9 to 5 and then do content afterwards might take the anxiety off because when you're unemployed it's on your mind and then you may you might actually be sitting on something This is very important I want to hear this You might be sitting on something very powerful but you have to keep doing it for another three years before it goes to where you want to But if you're so anxious to turn it into money you're gonna lose your audience because they're gonna feel it and all you needed to do was get a 9 to 5 I get that tell and me a balance Thank you Thank you It was like more like a Yeah I like that a lot Yeah I like the kind of mellow kind of like it was like a family conversation Good job up there in the morning of being single So I went and got a real brother Thank you I love it You're both crushing and change my life It's a pleasure to meet you Such a pleasure You know when I go through these lines of 100 people and taking these quick selfies you know I'm empathetic that the uh the event is normally trying to get through everybody They're probably being empathetic to me and want to get me home It's a long day But the reality is is like having that microsecond seeing how people are doing making sure I I connect with them you know is is very important to me A a yeah walking into a client dinner at 8 to 10 clients So really double dipping here between the you know speaking tour and Boehner media business development Anytime you can get two for the price of one it's always good So we're gonna go in here I'm gonna meet with some uh Boehner sports past people right after this of course have a wonderful evening So we'll see them We'll see you in Sydney A lo a lot of things I think about is doing things when it's hard We flew from New York to San Francisco San Francisco to Melbourne We're in the air for 24 hours We land we shower and we go right at it You saw everything we're doing like fucking meetings and the meetings and the meetings and keynotes and meetings and lines Now I'm sitting with two gentlemen who own vor sports passes who AJ calls me you know three weeks ago and says hey there's a couple of holders of Vor Sports Pass They live in Australia I'd love for you to meet them and they're in Melbourne Well my Melbourne name was super duper packed and like as you can imagine after 14 hours sitting in the lobby of the hotel at midnight and chopping it up with these guys for an hour that is challenging but the reality is so many of you that are watching here you want the finished product Well these are details like are you willing to do something for your community Are you willing to sit here and bring value I sat there for an hour and answered all the business questions and I was locked in just doing It's not enough You gotta do it right Meaning I wouldn't do it if I was gonna mail it in cause I'm gonna leave a bad impression and that's a waste of you know energy on both sides And so you know this is just a clip to wrap up the day the reality is I'm fucking exhausted at this point And the question is if you want it like there are gonna be moments where you're gonna go harder and stronger and deeper than than you know maybe you even want to sometimes you got to dig a little bit deeper especially and this is the key here especially for all of you that are talking that shit
