What do we want 101 flip it flip it like this Yep Here we go Go slow down autograph Who is it Oh I'm a purebred entrepreneur For real For real For real Like good sunshine It's day three I'm heading to Germany overnight uh for a keynote on Saturday in cologne We're in the trenches now we've got our system settled Car you know car talks going on right here Dustin show them and we're locked in now establishing be friends spending times with my favorite people supporting and loving my favorite people and going through it life as best We can always hang it in a little bit better Of course brother have the best show brother You too Come by the table I might buy some be friends Please do Come by baby What you in I want to see you be happy What if it's unbelievable how bad the location is It's not even that just like how people are walking through the other aisles The show is packed over there Look at this Look look at it like just like against the wall Is that no shot We just got too much to do Just wait for something proper today Close it up for now let's bring those over We close that case If you want to get a sense underneath the tables see if there's anything that we're missing any boxes of any cards or anything like that Got it So look through and anything that's opened boxes just stack to make it more visual than just cardboard up there Yes James Yes this is helping me so much You're like a bird cleaning cleaning stuff right now You guys help I just want to get this like more organized We got deals over here up in America Me a this year It's been good How about for you I know it feels like there's not a lot of liquid right It feels like everyone's looking to trade one day People are going to be really sad that they didn't buy these We got unlimited plans I'm going to make a good impact and the stories are real and it goes kind of like not just fy fy like one of my favorite characters is accountable ant and it's like yo you need to be fucking accountable like stop blame your fucking parents you know So it's a lot of that It's it's me in 300 character form I'm gonna build my Marvel and my fucking Pokemon and I'm going to watch the videos of this national where everybody did buy these for 60 3200 bucks and when they're fucking Pokemon in 15 years I'm going to get a real fucking kick out of it Do you think that's the wildest one of them all Because you don't know how long Deshaun suspended the impact I hope I win 17 because I hate every AFC team I hate every AFC team but the Jets I hate the Browns won 17 What are the Jets record next year Seven and 10 Gary says seven and 10 Let me know what you guys think you don't think Oh Bills to a crazy Jets fan you might want to fight You sign a brave Bison I got one but I'll buy this one here 100% Another Bills fan bought the other one I didn't realize they still had one to do it Have a good season buddy Bo Jackson cards are not going up but like John Moran cards could if he wins four titles so 99% of NFTS are going to zero But if Kyle executes then his won't it's all execution Is this the first one you open that first time is good luck with the Yeah I hope so So here we go Dinosaur solids like base cards to the big base cards Big fucking base card Yes that's you huge base card It's it's like more like a brown Another rare Go ahead Oh a monster monster I know your orange is next Optimistic Otter also underrated underrated This box is nuts Characterized It's either a diamond or an O it's an O or a diamond I think it's diamond I don't know There's 2111 No the next one I think the next one's auto which is go down slow because on the top right it'll say autograph It's either hollow I think it's fine Go down slow You can if you want go ahead go ahead Slow down autographs Who is it 101 Oh this could be a right I wish Oh solid 2323443333 That's two He crushed this crush This box crush Sleep him Great job Co that's fucking monster box brother My mom and down Gary What the vibes at national I have no idea I've been stuck behind this table taking selfies 800 hours a day No clue Literally No fucking How is your tremendous I love taking selfies with people What what's the headline Monday morning Post National of the hobby The hobby right now of cards Everything in general People aren't really spending cash A lot of people trying to trade baseball is dead as shit O Tony is like dominating the sport Nobody gives a shit So that's kind of a couple of things I've heard anything with friends in the next few months at all or we have a substantial announcement about the utility aspect of the project We gave a little bit of a preview with Mint Mink So that's going on It's been really fun to cross into the cards world with I'm looking to make sure that in 15 years everybody looks back at this interview and looks back at the prices of these suckers Were You make sure you capture this video what the prices are I'm going to poke on the fuck out of everybody and they're going to be sad as shit So that's my agenda If you could give your advice to yourself when you're 21 Yes I lived it I realized then that all of my friends and everybody in the world under 30 is just so fucking impatient because they worry about other people's opinions And so I was just focused on doing what I wanted to do And at that time in my life it was to help my parents business And so I just I told myself
